Judgment-Page 2 of 5IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of fifteen (15) months. This term consists of fifteen (15) months on each of Counts 1 and 2 to run concurrently.

You can appeal your conviction if you believe that your guilty plea was somehow unlawful or involuntary, or if there is some other fundamental defect in the proceedings that was not waived by your guilty plea. You also have a statutory right to appeal your sentence under certain circumstances, particularly if you think the sentence is contrary to law. However, a defendant may waive those rights as part of a plea agreement, and you have entered into a plea agreement which waives some or all of your rights to appeal the sentence itself. Such waivers are generally enforceable, but if you believe the waiver is unenforceable, you can present that theory to the appellate court. With few exceptions, any notice of appeal must be filed within 14 days after sentence is imposed on you.

If you are unable to pay the cost of an appeal, you may apply for leave to appeal in forma pauperis. If you so request, the Clerk of the Court will prepare and file a notice of appeal on your behalf."

The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

The Court requests that the Bureau of Prisons expedite the designation process in order the offender to be considered for immediate placement in a Residential Re-entry Center.

Furthermore, the Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons designate a facility which is proximal to the Defendant's family who reside in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
